

Free VA Benefits? 4th

100 US Veterans and active duty personnel suicide every day in protest from not getting needed care from this country and government agencies tasked to provide that help such as Veteran's Administration. Moreover, add the true costs of shattered families, wives, and now that America sends her women to war her husbands, the children, mothers, fathers, siblings and more and the true toll is astounding and uncountable. Those are the silent living dead of US wars that get no mention or help from Socialist lootership, either. Yet, I constantly hear and read in media propaganda and from a willful, ignorant aka stupid public believing it, how aforewritten get free benefits, medical care and much more. How many different ways must this deaf, dumb, blind and willfully stupid country need to be told and shown that lie? Self-destruction is vociferously protesting American betrayal of her uniformed active military and Veterans. The means are only an expedient to stop the pain physically, mentally and spiritually as walking dead casualties of America's infatuation and fantasy perception of her ongoing Wars, which is very easy when using other people's families and kids as sacrifice to '$$$$-In War Gods we Trust.' With benefits going to all those on the free ride and lunch the institution provides to them: War is good for business, so long as American's are investing someone else's families and kids. Moreover, only America and Veterans Affairs Dept. can stoop so low profiting from ongoing Veteran suffering and suicide in its neglect of them in Toto. With so many Veteran-helping agencies, why do so many Veterans and active military literally self-destruct from lack of it? Would someone please give me a satisfactory answer to that simple question? America's sickening silence is deafening... and evidence of a very diseased nation at large, ad nauseam. After honorable discharge from military duty, VA benefits betrayed and denied Vets like me for service related problems treated during active duty, and that VA mistreated at after discharged, and then blamed them on my mother! VA and transition benefits were a complete fraud. I was salvageable then. When applying for C&P and service related help, VA betrayed me, lied and denied them in Toto, and then blamed my mother! Moreover, the misogynist adjudication officer was arrogant enough to put that in writing, and I still have the rejection letter proving it. I am not alone in that; too many of the men I served with committed suicide from lack of care especially when their spouses and families abandoned them: we cannot live with your problems. Without their help, neither could he. I managed to survive those same losses. Where were America and VA for them and I... Mutely, hypocritically – silent. So are the dead Veterans and their stories of America's betrayal, neglect and much worse. Another made in America product this country is proud of, I suppose? VA's motto: making Amerika great again murdering one veteran at a time. Only at VA do we give US veterans the chance to suffer and die for their ungrateful country. Do not worry Amerika, they always dispose of you useful idiots last.

100 suicides a day are not silent protests; they are vociferously, screamed in your faces. So are homeless Vets, returned as misfits to society who lost it all during and after service to this nation: losing their family, wives, husbands, kids, sanity, who cannot hold jobs, get along with selves or others, addicts, alcoholics and troubled souls often in trouble with the law, which further blames and punishes them more for what American WAR culture created from her kids then abandoned the mess, as it does to all else in US and the world, in a dump and flush away culture. Meanwhile, what this willfully blind nation refuses to see or believe does not exist to it. Active and ex-military remain Stockholm syndrome loyal to our abusers begging for meager or no help; for example a crippled roadside derelict in or out of a wheelchair: 'Homeless Vet please help.' Then adding insult to injuries, America's misconceptions justifying their willful neglect that Veterans want to be homeless, refusing all those free benefits, help and medical care provided them all for nothing?! I issue this challenge to all Americans who cling to such lies and half-truths of denial and lazy slacktivism. Next time you encounter a homeless, and/or crippled Veteran, or one who has nothing left of a once normal life, like you lead, abandoned except for emptiness, loneliness and pain because everyone could not live or love a crazy Vet. Or one who struggles managing daily affairs from mental and emotional or other disabilities denied help or made much worse by VA, or has not had a decent nights sleep in decades, undergoes night terrors, suicidal high anxiety and phobia, untreatable mental depression, constant thoughts of and attempts using suicide as an escape from his or her suffering, many failed attempts until one day the hopes of a successful one ends it all, uncontrolled hypertension, stress, SHELL SHOCK or PC doublespeak PTSD, myriad sundry service related diseases from toxic exposures and worse infected in the line of duty, lives with moral injury mass murdering innocent mothers and babies with a gun barrel in his or her back held by 'we the Amerikan sheeple' and their government to do it or we will imprison and/or kill you, then sold such murders to the public as collateral damage – 'accidental on purpose, wink, wink, nod, nod,' and much, much more. Over 300,000 US captive audience Veterans died on waiting lists during the 8 years of Mr. Obama's administration pending, 'free benefits and healthcare' because they had no place else to go. Without income or private medical insurance they were rejected by capitalistic medicine. Patriotism is a major fraud and typical of a phony country and its lootership Amerikan government. Go anywhere in America and cash talks while broke patriotism is tossed out the door. Broke patriots are bums like any other skid row derelict in the US. Now, here is the million dollar question: would anyone reading this trade his or her life for the aforewritten and misperception of free benefits, help and concern this country believes that we get? Would you? Why not? I will tell you why. Because believing in such lies gives Amerikans a cop out that someone else is taking care of the problem; just like US mass media assuages the sheeples egos of any guilt in stating homeless families and such want to be that way; so, just ignore them because they choose to be that way. I challenge any of you cowards to visit a homeless shelter, look into the eyes of a mother and small children then ask that question: Is it true you want to live like this?" I took that challenge and could not utter the words. The impulse instead was to vomit in disgust at this hypocritical government and the sheeple flocks it pied pipers through the streets of hell. While this brave-coward country of ingrates can live in denial and fantasy, veterans and active military do not enjoy such airy fairy luxuries. The only free I see is the free ride and lunch America gets while sucking on the entitlement sugar tit paid for by others, especially her military and veterans. Veterans of the Vietnam era are nearly extinct. For many, without proper treatment suicide was not a matter of if but when s/he was finally successful. Amerika never heard about them because the owners covered up your crimes. Over 7 times the 69,000 casualties of that war suicided during and after the end of it from US neglect of their needs, and the body count continues to mount until we are extinct. Then that patriotic cross passes onto the next generations. Many others slowly died alone, sick, and neglected by this country that betrayed them to expediency against facing its cowardice and onuses of that war. With passage of the last one, which ends that era for us but not for the families that still carry our wounds, America's shame that it scapegoated upon all military and veterans, via your Neo-Socialist looter Jimmy Carter on January 21, 1977 reverts in Toto to rightful owners: the brave coward Amerikan nation. What one gives always returns abundantly. American sheeple, I extend my condolences to you in advance. The evils that you planted, you will reap and eat in the end...
